Guerrero Olivos to Expand Dispute Resolution Practice

🕒 30-01-2020

Benjamín Ferrada

In order to capitalize on the exponential growth of legal services in dispute resolution, mediation, civil and commercial litigation, national and international arbitrations matters, Chile's Guerrero Olivos will expand its litigation and arbitration area by absorbing Della Maggiora Eyzaguirre Ferrada's dispute resolution team.

On April 1st, Benjamín Ferrada will join the firm's dispute resolution team, as a partner alongside with associates Andrés Cuevas and Diego Auad. The practice is currently led by partner Sergio Yávar, Ferrada has focused his expertise in high complexity disputes, civil and commercial lawsuits, constitutional claims, tax and regulatory litigation, arbitration, mediation and negotiations, among others.

Cuevas has broad experience in civil and commercial litigation and represents clients in arbitration courts and higher courts of justice and Auad has focused his practice on civil and commercial litigation.
