Guerrero Olivos has represented Fundaci3n Arturo L3pez P3rez (FALP) in the acquisition of a Radixact radiotherapy system.

FALP is a non-profit organization dedicated to the research and treatment of cancer, offering a wide range of services and treatments.

This acquisition, from Reich de Comercio Exterior, a leading Chilean supplier of medical equipment, will allow FALP to continue fighting cancer with top-of-the-range equipment.

The law firm was in charge of the whole transaction, from preliminary negotiations until the closing, which included the negotiation and drafting of the purchase and maintenance agreement of the Radixact equipment.

In 2019, Guerrero Olivos participated in FALP's joint venture and acquisition of a stake in PositronPharma S.A., a company that operates the only cyclotron in Chile, which are used to produce radionuclides.

Guerrero Olivos' team was led by partner Tom3s Kubick, with associate Diego Rodr3guez

Fontaine & Cia. acted as counsel to Reich de Comercio Exterior, with a team led by partner Alejandro Vicari, with tax partner Hernan Fontaine.
