

TITULO: Chilean water transport company gets loan for new boats
NÂ°	FECHA	MEDIO	SECCIÃ“N	PÃ•GINA
76929	2020-06-04	Latinlawyer.com	On Line	SP

Imagen 1/1

Chilean water transport company gets loan for new boats

Eloise Hardy | 04 June 2020

Chile's Guerrero Olivos has helped Scotiabank and Banco Internacional lend US$40 million to Patagonia Wellboat.

Local firm Reymond, Colombo & Cía Abogados advised Patagonia Wellboat. The deal closed on 15 May.

Patagonia Wellboat will use the money to construct two new boats. The company, based in the city of Puerto Montt, provides collection, transport and delivery services to the fishing industry.

Counsel to Patagonia Wellboat

Reymond, Colombo & Cía Abogados

Partner Julio Reymond

Counsel to Scotiabank Chile and Banco Internacional

In-house counsel - Enrique Arechavala and Claudia Álvarez Rojas

Guerrero Olivos

Partner Miguel Coddou and associates Diego Rodríguez and Matías Ríos
