Chilean law firm Guerrero Olivos has represented Caja de Compensaci3n de Asignaci3n Familiar de Los Andes (Caja Los Andes) in the registration of a $336 million local bond offering.

BICE bank represented the bondholders.

Caja Los Andes is the leading social security services provider in Chile, with a more than 60 per cent market share.

Guerrero Olivos' capital markets team was in charge of the whole transaction, which was executed in the context of a diversification of Caja Los Andes' financial sources plan, and which will allow Caja Los Andes to optimise the security benefits and loans to its affiliates during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The firm's team was led by partner Roberto Guerrero (pictured), with senior associate C3sar G3lvez and junior associate Josefina S3nchez.
