Guerrero Olivos has represented Wayra Chile in an investment in the online education platform Vincoed, and in the startup Retrypay

Guerrero Olivos has assisted Wayra Chile Tecnología e Innovación SpA in an investment in 2 entrepreneurship. The first one is Vincoed, Inc, a platform that gives employees access to the best online education programs, and the second one is Retrypay LLC, an e-commerce start-up.

This transaction closed on 3 January for a total amount of $150,000 US dollars.

The advisory included conducting due diligence on both companies in the US and Mexico, as well as drafting and negotiating all transaction documentation.
