Both of the new partners have garnered significant experience in their careers as well as prestige in the legal market, the firm said in a statement.

César Gálvez has developed his entire career in the office, and is a member of the corporate law and capital markets areas, specializing in local and international corporate transactions, debt issuances, and international restructurings and financings.

He gained an LLM from the University of Pennsylvania and has held the position of international associate at Winston & Strawn in New York.

Felipe Frühling is a member of the energy and natural resources practice and has specialized in mergers and acquisitions of companies in the energy industry, in due diligence processes, and in the financing and development of energy projects. He holds an LLM from Columbia University in New York.

These two promotions are part of Guerrero Olivos' strategy to continue growing and strengthening, especially in areas and industries that are growing in importance, such as energy and natural resources, and corporate law, the firm said.
