PPU Chile has counselled Inversiones Enex in the purchase of 16 Ok Market and Oxxo convenience stores

Philippi Prietocarrizosa Ferrero DU & Uría has advised Inversiones Enex, a subsidiary of Enex and part of Quiñenco (industrial and financial holding of the Luksic Group) in the acquisition of 16 convenience stores from Comercial Big John Limitada (Oxxo) and Ok Market, both subsidiaries of Femsa.

The transaction, closed on 5 April, included the participation of Guerrero Olivos as counsel to the sellers.

The in-house lawyers involved in the transaction were Juan Eduardo López and Angélica Seguel.

Guerrero Olivos' team was led by partner Jorge Delpiano, assisted by associates Juan José García, Sebastián Marambio, Daniela Ahumada.

together with associates Fernando Bustos, Matías Larroulet, Josefina Joannon, Macarena Gaitán, Isabel Haro, Florencia Portales, Antonio Villarino, Aref Cosma and Ariel Castillo.
